April 9, 1771. JAMES SINKLER.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 25.

THE General Assembly of Virginia, which was called to meet on the 11th past, sat till the 20th; when, after having passed an Act for the Relief of the Sufferers by the late Inundations,—a Vote of Thanks to the Opposers of a Project for the Introduction of an American Bishop—and another Vote for erecting an elegant Marble Statue, at the public Expence, to perpetuate the Memory of their late Governor, the Right Hon. Norborne Baron de Botetourt,—they were prorogued to Thursday the 24th of October next.

His Excellency Governor Tryon (late of North-Carolina) arrived at his new Government of New-York, with his Lady and Daughter, on the 8th ult. and was received there with the greatest Marks of Respect. His Commission was published the next Day, with the usual Formalities; And complimentary Addresses have been presented to His Excellency, 1. By the Rector and Inhabitants of the City of New-York, in Communion of the Church of England—2. The Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the reformed Dutch Church—3. Of the united Presbyterian Churches of Scotland—4. Of the reformed German Church—5. Of the Protestant French Church—6. By the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty—7. The Chamber of Commerce—8. The Marine Society—9. The Governors, Professors, Fellows, and Tutors of the College—10. The Minister, Church-Wardens, and Vestrymen of the ancient Lutheran Church—11. The Ministers, Trustees, and Wardens of the German evangelical Lutheran Church—12. The Congregation of United Brethren—13. The Judges, Attorney-General, Practioners of the Law, and other Officers of the Supreme Court—14. The Descendants of the ancient Protestant Dutch Inhabitants—15. The old Church of Jesus Christ, baptized on a personal Profession of their Faith.

The 24th ult. His Excellency the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, late Governor of New-York, set out from that City, on a Visit to Sir William Johnston, at his Seat on the Mohawk's River; from whence he is expected the first Week in September at Philadelphia; and will go by Land (after a very short Stay) to take upon him his new Government of Virginia, where Part of His Excellency's Furniture and Baggage was arrived.

His Excellency Josiah Martin, Esq; the new Governor of North-Carolina, was at New-York when Governor Tryon arrived, embarked there the 22d ult. in the same Vessel that carried Mr. Tryon, and arrived at Newbern the 11th Instant: The next Day his Commission was opened and read at the Palace: And the Day after, the Inhabitants waited on his Excellency with a congratulatory Address from themselves and the County of Craven.——The most remarkable Passages in the several Addresses to the Governors Tryon and Martin, shall hereafter be selected, and published in this Paper.

Last Thursday Evening a Duel was fought, between Dr. John Haly, of this Town, and Peter De Lancey, Esq; Deputy Post-master General for the Southern District of North-America, with Pistols, at Mr. Holliday's Tavern on the Bay; the Issue of which has involved some respectable Families, and the Friends of each Party, in almost inexpressible Distress.—As a great Number of contradictory and infamous Reports have already been spread, and are daily circulating, upon this Occasion, we think it our Duty (and hope shall be held blameless) to lay before the Public, such of the Particulars as have come to our Knowledge, which seem to deserve most Credit. The two unhappy Combatants, it seems, had dined and spent the Afternoon together (among other Company) at another Gentleman's private Lodging, with great Sociability and Gaiety. Towards the Evening, all the Company having retired, except themselves and one Gentleman more, they withdrew into the Balcony, and were observed to converse rather gravely, and set their Watches; but no high Words passed, nor was there the least Appearance of any Difference: This might be about seven o'Clock. Soon after, each went to his respective Home. About eight, Mr. De Lancey called at Mr. Holliday's on the Bay; asked if Dr. Haly had been there? And upon being answered in the Negative, enquired if they could not have the Dining-Room above? Being told that it was engaged to a Society for that Evening, he looked into the Corner Parlour on the Street, said that would do, engaged it, called for a Glass of Negus or Punch, drank Part, and went out again; leaving a Direction, to tell the Doctor if he should come, that he would be there again immediately. He had been gone but a few Minutes, before he returned with the Doctor, whom he had met, accompanied by another Gentleman that had accidentally joined him, near Mr. Holliday's Tavern in Broad-Street (late Dillon's) the other Gentleman walking between them all the Way, without the least Suspicion of what ensued. When they came to Mr. Holliday's, the Gentleman who was with them, went up Stairs; Mr. De Lancey ordered Candles and Wine, and went into the Room he had engaged, the Doctor following him; then one of them directed the Waiter to put to the Shutters, and the Door was shut: The Waiter returning, to snuff the Lights, he was ordered out; they shut themselves in; and presently the Report of Pistols was heard. The Door was thereupon immediately burst open, Mr. De Lancey was found lying bleeding, and senseless, on the Floor, with a Ball entered at his right Pap, and lodged in his left Side, and having a discharged Pistol grasp'd in his right Hand; Dr. Haly walked out with another in his, and (with visible Concern in his Countenance) called at several of his Friends Houses, begging "a Doctor might be sent to poor De Lancey, whom he believed he had hurt." From Circumstances, it appears, that they had exchanged Pistols; that Mr. De Lancey fired first and missed, one Ball having passed thro' the Partition of the Entry rather high, and the other lodged in the Skirting-Board; that Doct. Haly fired almost at the same Instant; and that each discharged the other's Pistol—unhappily for both their Families!—The Dispute between these Gentlemen was so sudden, and so secret, that not one of the Friends of either can pretend to give any certain Account of the Cause, tho' there are many Conjectures; so that it seems to be known only by the Survivor.—A Jury of Inquest sat on the Body that Evening, and at ten o'Clock the next Morning returned their Verdict, "That John Haly, &c. did feloniously kill and slay the said Peter De Lancey, &c.

The same Evening, and about the same Time, a most melancholly Accident happened at the House of one William Davy, an industrious Shoemaker in Dennis's Alley, which ought to serve as A LASTING CAUTION to careless People. This poor Man, it seems, went to draw Rum out of a Hogshead the Bung whereof was open, with a lighted Candle in his Hand; and the Rum imperceptibly took Fire, and burnt 'till one of the Heads of the Hogshead burst, and spread the flaming Liquor over the whole Floor: By which two Infants (one about 18 Months, the other 3 Years old) were so dreadfully burnt, that they both died, in extreme Misery, within 24 Hours: The unhappy Parent too, was much scorched in rescuing his Children from the Flames; but the Fire was happily soon got under.—This terrible accident should warn every one carefully not to draw Rum, either out of Hogsheads or Cask-Kattles, by Candle-Light; which is too often customary, to every sensible (and very careless and) servant; especially for such carelessness, this Town in particular, is in continual danger of being reduced to ashes in a very few hours;—which may also happen, by too many masters imprudently suffering their servants to go into stables with lighted candles.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has invested William-Henry Drayton, Esq; with the late Mr. De Lancey's Office; and Mr. Drayton has continued Mr. John Stevens, as Secretary, and Deputy Postmaster for Charles-Town.

Captain Charles Henry, who arrived here last Thursday, in 22 Days from Jamaica, informs us of Admiral Rodney's Arrival there from England, with the following Ships, viz. the Princess Amelia of 80 Guns, the Boyne of 70, Modeste of 64, Achilles of 60, the Diana Frigate of 32, and Merlin Sloop of 16; to relieve Commodore Mackenzie; who was also there, in the Dunkirk of 60 Guns, with the Guadaloupe Frigate, and the Zephyr, Druid, and Tryal Sloops.—He likewise informs us, that the Brigantine Harriott of this Port, William Mahony Master, was, on the 8th ult. burnt at Kingston, by Accident, after her Cargo (except a few Barrels) had been delivered. And that on the 13th Instant, about 20 Miles to the Northward of Cape Florida, and in Sight of Land, at half past 4 in the Afternoon, he saw a large Vessel (in Company of 3 others) inshore, suddenly take Fire, and burn most furiously till towards Morning, when she disappeared; but he could afford her no Assistance, being to Leeward. The same Day, he observed a Vessel ashore upon Cape Florida Riff, with only a Fore-mast standing, and several small Craft about her.

On the 10th Instant died, Mr. Samuel Smith, youngest Son of the late Hon. William Smith, of New-York.

On the 11th Instant put in here, leaky, a Spanish Brigantine called the Anna, Miguel Calderin, Master, from the Havana, bound to Porto-Rico, in the Royal Company's Service.

Last Thursday, Mr. Alexander Gillon and Family, embarked and sailed for England; Col. Robert Rivers for Bermuda; the Rev. John Tonge, and others, for Philadelphia.

Last Monday put into this Port, the Brigantine Christopher, Captain Brown, from Newfoundland; and on Tuesday the Brigantine Tryon, Captain Marnan, from St. Christopher, both bound for Cape-Fear.

This Day the Brigantine Prince of Wales, Captain Moore, arrived here from Philadelphia, which City she left last Sunday Morning at Ten o'Clock: Mr. Crouch, and other Passengers, came in the said Brigantine.——The Friendship, Capt. Blewer, was to sail from Philadelphia, for this, last Monday; and the Brigantine Charles-Town Packet, Captain Wright, the first of September.

The Sunbury Packet, Capt. Haywood, of and from Gosport, is arrived in Georgia.

 There were two Mistakes in the articles published under the Charles-Town head, in our last paper, which the reader is desired to correct, viz. 1st, Where the price of Rice was mentioned, 10 s. was omitted: it should be read 3*l.* 10 s. which is still the price. 2d, The Brigantine said to have been built by Mr. Cornelius Dewies, was only built on his Island, not by Mr. Dewies, but by Mr. William Harper, who is now in Partnership with Mr. George Noddings.

They were purſued the next Morning, and tracked ſeveral Miles, making towards the Southward, where it is imagined they are gone; and, as they have Friends and Relations about Ponpon, it is likely they will be harboured there.

Whoever will apprehend the ſaid Run-Aways, and deliver them, or either of them, to the Warden of the Work-Houſe, or to the Subſcriber, in Charles-Town, ſhall receive for SAUL TEN POUNDS, and for the Wench and Child TEN POUNDS, or TWENTY POUNDS for the Three, and all reaſonable Charges.

Alſo ran away from the Subſcriber's Plantation, on the 7th Day of June laſt, a Negro-Fellow, named FORTUNE, a likely, ſlim, active black Fellow, about Thirty-five Years of Age, formerly the Property of Mr. Adam Stewart, of St. Stephen's Pariſh, deceaſed; notoriouſly known for his Villainy in may Parts of the Province, and remarkable for Stuttering and Stammering in his Speech, as he can ſcarce utter a Word properly; his common Apparel was, a ſhort blue Jacket, white Negro Cloth Robbin, and Oſnabrugs Breeches. Whoever will apprehend this Run-Away, and delivers him as aforeſaid, ſhall receive a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS Currency, from

A TRACT on ACCABEE, one of the most beautifully situated Country Seats in this Province, not more than seven Miles from Charles-Town by Land, and about the same Distance by Water.—The Whole contains four Hundred Acres, three Hundred of which are in Oak and Pine Wood, the Rest in Pasture under Fence.—The Dwelling-House on it is of Brick, with a large Hall and Parlour on the Ground Floor, and a Passage and Stairs in an Entry between both; there are four Bed-Chambers above them, exclusive of the Garret which has two unfinished Rooms.—The Cellar is very convenient for a Kitchen, being built and used for that Purpose.—On the South Front of the House is a new Piazza, which overlooks an unimproved Garden quite down to the delightful River on which the Whole is situated.—Opposite to the House and Garden, the River is computed to be upwards of a Mile wide, and abounds with a Variety of Fish, Oysters, &c.—As there is Plenty of Wood, Bricks may be made to Advantage, and the Number now at the Landing will be a sufficient Recommendation of the Quality of the Clay, &c.—Vast Quantities of Lime may likewise be burnt, the Shell-Banks being very contiguous to the Landings, and the Wood not far to cart.

A TRACT at STONO, St. Paul's Parish, butting and bounding, Eastward and Southward on Lands belonging to the Estate of the late ROBERT MACKEWN, Esq; and Lands of JAMES STANYARNE, Esq; Westward and Northward on Lands of Mr. ISAAC NICHOLS, deceased; and Mr. ALGERNOON WILSON.

This Tract contains four Hundred Acres, and is principally adapted for the Culture of Indico, Corn, &c. the Soil being loose and fertile, it will also answer for most European Grain; about Seventy Acres has been cleared, and a tolerable Plantation House on it, but being rented out to several Tenants, Shoemakers, &c. it has been much abused, and at present is out of Repair. It is well timbered with Oak and Pine, and its Distance from the public Landing, at Friend-Town, scarce exceeds two Miles.

Another TRACT at STONO, about a Mile nearer the Public Landing than the above, containing by a Re-survey three Hundred and Seventy-five Acres, butting and bounding North-Eastwardly on Land belonging to WILLIAM ELLIOTT, Esq. (called Winners) North-Westwardly on Land belonging to the Estate of ROBERT MACKEWN, Esq; South-Eastwardly on Lands belonging to FREDERICK GRIMKE, Esq; and South-Westwardly on Lands belonging to CHARLES ELLIOTT, Esq. This is a very compact Tract, fit for Indico, Corn and Rice: A great Part of this small Tract is in Wood of Oak, Hickory, and Pine, and affords good Cooper Stuff for any of the adjacent Rice Plantations. On it is a pretty good Dwelling-House, now rented to Mr. JOSEPH DANDRIDGE.

A long Credit will be given, if desired, paying Interest from the Delivery of the TITLES.
